Sin and Redemption; Or, why Did Christ Die? ... New and Revised Edition John GARNIER,1902

In the Sin Bin Link Wilfley,2020-02-06 a courageous book His relentless pursuit of truth is strikingly honest James Churches co author Stories of Men Meaning and Prayer Molested as a child abandoned by egotistical hypocrisy culture shocked and terrorized by the gangs of Madrid Link Wilfley runs from suicidal tendencies and his demons with fists drugs alcohol and professional rugby In the Sin Bin a rugby penalty box spans five continents where Link crosses paths with the salty characters of the Earth The demons of trauma past cannot be defeated without facing them however and the turmoil of pain and confusion mean repeated visits to jail where he finds the greatest evil of all He returns to the States ashamed and lost only to be saved by a woman who will punch him in the face call him out and mother his five children Disturbing unreservedly direct and surprisingly comical this rugged treatise on masculinity is the physical and emotional journey of a young man doing the hard work to heal the wounds of wicked circumstances

Our Redemption Frederic Alphonso Noble,1897

Sin, Redemption, and Sacrifice Stanislas Lyonnet,Léopold Sabourin,1998 The present study is made up of three parts The first one entitled the notion of sin by Stanislas Lyonnet starts from the observation that redemption is essentially the destruction of sin For this reason the treatise on redemption in the New Testament is preceded by an inquiry into the notion of sin as it derives from the Old Testament especially from the account of Genesis 3 The second part also from Stanislas Lyonnet is devoted to the terminology of redemption in the N T The third part by Leopold Sabourin is about sacrifice and redemption in the history of St Paul s formula Christ made sin 2 Cor 5 21 The author examines the most representative testimonies of the ancient and Medieval Greek and Latin writers and exposes his interpretation of 2 Cor 5 21 in which the notion of sacrifice for sin appears as a key concept in this formulation

Sin and Redemption David Newton Sheldon,2017-10-24 Excerpt from Sin and Redemption A Series of Sermons to Which Is Added an Oration of Moral Freedom In these Sermons on Sin and Redemption I have sought to exhibit some leading theological doctrines in their necessary harmony with the fundamental principles of eternal moral truth In doing this I have not hesitated while carefully retaining all that is substantial and vital in these doctrines all that the Scriptures teach with regard to them and all that commends itself to an enlightened and earnest Christian mind to modify somewhat the commonly received statement and explanation of them In this respect I indulge the hope perhaps a too sanguine one that this small volume may contribute at least its mite to the progressive purification of theology That my labors will win the approval of all readers I do not venture to anticipate Partisans in religion the men of hereditary faith and the adherents to old creeds and formulas will of course find fault But I shall be disappointed if an other smaller but constantly increasing class composed not of reckless speculators but of earnest lovers of truth shall not be found who mainly approve and accept the views contained in these sermons To them and to their candid judgment and free criticisms I commit this volume I ask only that it may be read and examined in the spirit in which it may itself contain the evidence that it has been written About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
